

“Safeguard our Countryside”

WWF photo exhibition revealing destroyed environments in Hong Kong

Date	Venue
July 31 st to August 1 st , 2010	C001, 1/F, Central Star Ferry Pier 7
August 2 rd to 18 th , 2010	C001, 1/F, & waiting Concourse, Central Star Ferry Pier 7

Tai Long Sai Wan incident is just the tip of the iceberg. WWF-Hong Kong is launching the “Safeguard our Countryside” photo exhibition. A large “Wall of Destruction” will be on display showing vandalized sites revealed by concern groups between 2006 and 2010. The public is encouraged to bring pictures of environmental destruction to the exhibition.

Exhibition opening event

Date: 31 July 2010 (Saturday)

Time: 14:00 – 15:00

Venue: C001, 1/F, Central Star Ferry Pier 7

Spokesman: Dr Alan Leung, Conservation Manager (Terrestrial)
WWF-Hong Kong

Guests: Representatives from The Conservancy Association, Designing Hong Kong Limited, Friends of Tai Long Sai Wan, Green Power, Association for Geoconservation, Hong Kong, Green Lantau Association, Friends of Sai Kung, Friends of the Earth (Hong Kong) and Hong Kong Bird Watching Society